

POLI 398 SPECIAL TOPICS IN POLITICAL SCIENCE (1-3) [credit depends on topic] Prerequisite: A background of work in the discipline. This course will focus on an aspect of the discipline not otherwise covered by the regularly offered courses. The topic will vary according to professor and term; consequently, more than one may be taken by a student during his/her matriculation.

POLI 399 INTERNSHIP (1-6) Prerequisites: Juniors or seniors with a 2.25 minimum QPA; approval of written proposal by internship coordinator, and supervising faculty prior to registration. In a small number of cases, students may earn credit for participation in an internship with a government agency, law firm, political campaign, or nonprofit organization. Limited internship opportunities are available and must be jointly directed by a faculty sponsor and the responsible agency administrator. (See "Internships.")

POLI 410 SENIOR THESIS SEMINAR (3) Prerequisites: POLI 220, 321, and at least two other 300-level courses. The senior seminar is designed to be a capstone course in which the student, utilizing substantive and methodological knowledge accumulated through previous course work, develops and tests a relevant political hypothesis or closely related set of hypotheses. The course culminates with the writing and presentation of a formal research paper.

PSYCHOLOGY COURSES (PSYC)

PSYC 103-104 GENERAL PSYCHOLOGY (3, 3) Corequisites: PSYC 105L-106L. Three hours lecture per semester. This course sequence provides an overview of the subfields of psychology.

PSYC 105L-106L GENERAL PSYCHOLOGY LABORATORY (1, 1) Two hours laboratory per semester. This course serves as an introduction to the laboratory techniques of psychology.

PSYC 212 INTRODUCTION TO BEHAVIOR MODIFICATION (3) Strongly recommended: PSYC 106L. Three hours lecture. This course studies the use of principles of learning and experimental design in the modification of a wide variety of human behaviors.

PSYC 215 HEALTH PSYCHOLOGY (3) Strongly recommended: PSYC 103-104. Three hours lecture. This course examines the psychological, biological, and social factors involved in the promotion and maintenance of health and the prevention and treatment of illness. Students learn about the interaction of mind and body while exploring such topics as nutrition and eating disorders; cancer and heart disease; chronic illness and pain management; AIDS; smoking and alcoholism; and stress and coping.

PSYC 230 PSYCHOLOGY OF AGING (3) Strongly recommended: SOCI 240. Three hours lecture. This introductory overview course examines the conceptual and theoretical approaches to the psychological aspects of aging. Personality variables and adaptive as well as maladaptive behavioral patterns are also studied.

PSYC 238 INTRODUCTION TO RESEARCH (1-3) Prerequisite: Consent of supervising instructor. This course provides the beginning student the opportunity to conduct lab, field, or library research under the supervision of a faculty member. Credit is dependent upon the scope of the work.

PSYC 241 DEVELOPMENTAL PSYCHOLOGY (3) Three hours lecture. Growth, development, and associated behavioral change from conception through aging are studied in this course. Psychology majors are advised to take PSYC 341, which counts as a requirement in the major.

PSYC 261 PSYCHOLOGY OF GENDER (3) This course examines psychological approaches to the study of sex and gender. Issues of male and female psychology are examined with a consideration of ways in which the similarities and differences between men and women influence behavior, cognitive abilities, and physical and psychological health. Theoretical perspectives on sex, gender, sex-role socialization and gender differences, and similarities across the lifespan are covered.

PSYC 263 PSYCHOLOGY OF LAW (3) This course examines the application of psychological principles, research, and knowledge to legal issues dealing broadly with the interface between psychology and the law. As such, the course will critically investigate the wide range of contemporary applications of psychology to a variety of topics including understanding the origins and treatments of criminally deviant behavior, psychological autopsies, criminal profiling, jury selection, eye witness testimony, repressed memory, persuasive communication in the courtroom, child abuse investigation, competence determination, and the insanity defense.

PSYC 265 INDUSTRIAL/ORGANIZATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY (3) This course focuses on the application of psychological principles and research to a variety of human issues in industry. Research techniques applicable in the field, along with data associated with various concepts and theories, are covered. Additional topics covered are personnel selection, training and evaluation; human factors and engineering psychology; and the organizational and social context of human work.

PSYC 267 THEORIES OF PSYCHOTHERAPY (3) Students are introduced to the theories and techniques used in therapeutic interventions with individuals and groups that provide a framework for the process of psychotherapy. The course will provide a systematic, comprehensive, and balanced overview of the leading theories and techniques.

PSYC 274 STATISTICS FOR PSYCHOLOGISTS (4) Three hours lecture and two hours laboratory. This course introduces descriptive and inferential statistics with particular emphasis on applications to psychological research. A required laboratory supplements lectures.

PSYC 275 RESEARCH METHODOLOGY (4) Prerequisites: PSYC 103/105L-104/106L, 274. Three hours lecture and two hours laboratory. This course examines experimental and non-experimental strategies used in psychology and other scientific disciplines. Studies are critiqued, designed, and conducted. Students are required to use the writing style of the American Psychological Association for their reports.

PSYC 302 SOCIAL PSYCHOLOGY (3) Corequisites: PSYC 103-104. Three hours lecture. This course analyzes the effects of others in the social environment on individual behavior. Topics include group dynamics, attitude theory, aggressive and pro-social behavior, and person perception.

PSYC 305 HUMAN MEMORY AND INFORMATION PROCESSING (4) Prerequisites: PSYC 103/105L, 104/106L, 275. Three hours lecture and two hours laboratory. This course focuses on current approaches to human information processing, encoding, storage, retrieval, and models of forgetting and memory storage. Laboratory exercises are computer-based and demonstrate concepts studied in class.

PSYC 306 THEORIES OF PERSONALITY (3) Prerequisites: PSYC 103/105L, 104/106L. Three hours lecture. A study of both the historical roots and the contemporary bases of personality theory are studied.

PSYC 308 ABNORMAL BEHAVIOR (3) Prerequisites: PSYC 103/105L, 104/106L. Three hours lecture. This course looks at a variety of disturbing behaviors, as well as determining factors, symptoms, and methods of treatment.

PSYC 311 SENSORY PROCESSES AND PERCEPTION (4) Prerequisites: PSYC 103/105L, 104/106L, 275. Three hours lecture and two hours laboratory. This course examines cognitive information processing which occurs in the reception, integration, and interpretation of incoming sensory stimuli and the physiological and anatomical bases of these processes. Laboratory exercises are computer-based and demonstrate concepts studied in class.

PSYC 312 LEARNING AND MOTIVATION (4) Prerequisite: PSYC 275. Three hours lecture and two hours laboratory. The course focuses on a detailed analysis of data pertaining to theories of learning and to the determinants of behavior change.

PSYC 315 DRUGS AND BEHAVIOR (3) Prerequisites: PSYC 103/105L-104/106L. Three hours lecture. The biochemical and physiological bases of drug action are presented as a basis for understanding the physiological and behavioral effects of drugs. The major classes of drugs are discussed with particular emphasis on popular drugs of abuse such as alcohol, nicotine, cocaine, and marijuana. The use of drugs in the treatment of mental disorders is also discussed.

PSYC 341 PSYCHOLOGY OF DEVELOPMENT (3) Prerequisites: PSYC 274, 275. This course in developmental psychology is intended for majors in psychology and critically examines the psychological theories and research that describe and explain human development.

PSYC 344 COGNITIVE PSYCHOLOGY (3) The purpose of this course is to introduce students to the major areas of cognitive psychology including the current methodologies used to study it. The course explores cognitive psychology within the domain of human information processing and the ways in which people learn and think in an attempt to understand the nature of human thought processes. Topics covered include attention, decision-making, language acquisition and use, knowledge representation, problem solving, and reasoning. Current models of cognition are considered in relation to the evidence on human thinking capabilities.

PSYC 355 PHYSIOLOGICAL PSYCHOLOGY AND LABORATORY (4) Prerequisites: PSYC 103/105L-104/106L, 275. Three hours lecture and two hours laboratory. This course involves the study of the biological bases of behavior. The focus is on the physiological mechanisms that mediate emotional, sexual, ingestive, and aggressive behaviors, as well as on the mechanisms mediating perceptual, learning, and memory processes. Laboratory exercises complement lectures and reading materials by providing hands-on experience with research techniques used in physiological psychology that illustrate the links between physiology and behavior.

PSYC 367 CHILD PSYCHOPATHOLOGY (3) The goal of this course is to provide an overview of the field of child psychopathology. The etiology, assessment, and treatment of the major psychological disorders of childhood and adolescence will be discussed. Other topics covered include research methods, diagnosis and classification, child maltreatment, and cultural diversity.

PSYC 374 ADVANCED METHODS: SOCIAL (1) Prerequisite: PSYC 275. A two-hour laboratory focused on research in social psychology. Students investigate a topic of interest through aspects of the research process that may include the design of a proposal, conducting research, analyzing information, and presenting results.

PSYC 375 ADVANCED METHODS: DEVELOPMENTAL (1) Prerequisite: PSYC 275. A two-hour laboratory focused on research in developmental psychology. Students investigate a topic of interest through aspects of the research process that may include the design of a proposal, conducting research, analyzing information, and presenting results.

PSYC 376 ADVANCED METHODS: COGNITIVE (1) Prerequisite: PSYC 275. A two-hour laboratory focused on research in cognitive psychology. Students investigate a topic of interest through aspects of the research process that may include the design of a proposal, conducting research, analyzing information, and presenting results.

PSYC 392 INTRODUCTION TO PSYCHOLOGICAL TESTS AND MEASUREMENT (3) Prerequisites: PSYC 103/105L, 104/106L, 308. Three hours lecture. This study of psychological testing includes theories of test construction, the nature of psychological testing, and the kinds of tests available. General types of tests for assessment of personality, abilities/intelligence, psychopathology, and neurological functioning will be studied.

PSYC 392L INTRODUCTION TO EDUCATIONAL AND PSYCHOLOGICAL TESTS AND MEASUREMENT LAB (1) Prerequisite or corequisite: PSYC 392. This course will be an application of the administration, scoring, and interpretation of educational and psychological tests for diagnostic purposes.

PSYC 397 INDEPENDENT STUDY IN PSYCHOLOGY (1-3) Prerequisites: Approval of faculty sponsor and school dean; junior or senior standing. This course provides students the opportunity to pursue individual study of topics not covered in other available courses. The area for investigation is developed in consultation with a faculty sponsor and credit is dependent on the nature of the work. May be repeated for no more than six credits.

PSYC 398 SPECIAL TOPICS IN PSYCHOLOGY (1-3) [credit depends on topic] Prerequisite: A background of work in the discipline. This course will focus on an aspect of the discipline not otherwise covered by the regularly offered courses. The topic will vary according to professor and term; consequently, more than one may be taken by a student during his/her matriculation.

PSYC 399 INTERNSHIP (1-12) Prerequisites: Eighteen hours of psychology exclusive of introductory psychology. Juniors or seniors with a 2.25 minimum QPA; approval of written proposal by internship coordinator and supervising faculty prior to registration. Internships occur in an agency or other institution involved in clinical services. (See “Internships.”)

PSYC 401 HISTORY AND SYSTEMS OF PSYCHOLOGY (3) Prerequisites: PSYC 103/105L, 104/106L, 275. Three hours lecture. This course provides critical examination of historical antecedents and discernable systems of contemporary psychology. It is recommended for the senior year after considerable coursework in psychology.

RELIGIOUS STUDIES COURSES (RELG)

RELG 201 OLD TESTAMENT (3) This course is an introduction to literary and historical study of the Hebrew Bible/Old Testament, a collection of religious literature central in the canons of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam.

RELG 202 NEW TESTAMENT (3) This survey of the literature of the earliest church pays special attention to its historical development and the major themes of its teachings.

RELG 205 RELIGIONS OF ASIA (3) This course presents the central features of Hinduism, Buddhism, Taoism, Confucianism, and Shinto within the framework of an historical survey of the religions from early times to the present. The course includes an introductory unit that seeks to construct a descriptive definition of “religion” through a study of the religions of prehistoric peoples and contemporary indigenous peoples.

RELG 206 JUDAISM, CHRISTIANITY, AND ISLAM (3) This course considers those religions originating in the Near East in an historical perspective, looking at the main stages of their development. Relevant passages from the sacred writings are examined for their original meaning in their textual context and for their importance for religious faith and practice today.

RELG 260 CONGREGATIONAL MINISTRIES - PRE-MINISTERIAL PRACTICUM 1

(1) This course is designed to introduce pre-ministerial students to the practical skills needed to serve in a church-related setting. Students develop and practice basic ministry skills and have the opportunity to learn about a variety of topics from guest speakers.

RELG 261 MINISTRY VOCATIONS - PRE-MINISTERIAL PRACTICUM 2 (1) This course introduces students to a variety of ministry opportunities. Students explore chaplaincy, social service work, non-profit administration, and other ministry-related vocations. Students have the opportunity to meet with guest speakers who work in various areas of ministry.

RELG 262 SEMINARY EXPLORATIONS - PRE-MINISTERIAL PRACTICUM 3 (1) This course allows students to examine seminary options and further theological studies in the areas of religion and ministry. Students have the opportunity to meet with seminary representatives. Students also have the opportunity to “match” their individual needs with a specific seminary or divinity school.

RELG 263 WOMEN IN MINISTRY - PRE-MINISTERIAL PRACTICUM 4 (1) This course explores issues related to women serving in ministry settings. Men and women students have the opportunity to learn and discuss this topic in a classroom setting. Guest speakers share their experiences and explore ways of dealing with stereotyping in a variety of ministry settings.

RELG 303 SEMINAR IN RELIGIONS OF ASIA (3) Prerequisite: RELG 201, 202, 205, or 206. The seminar examines Hinduism, Jainism, Buddhism, and Sikhism in South Asia and the spread of Buddhism into Southeast Asia, China, Korea, and Japan. Topics include the relationship of religious norms to those of the modern secular state and its obligations to society; “fundamentalism;” the role of women; and new religious movements which spring from Eastern teachings (TM, Meher, Baba, Sai Baba) and Western teachings with Eastern roots (e.g. Theosophy, Gurdjieff). Some attention will be given to the self-religions including Rajneeshism and “est” (Erhard Seminars Training), also known as “the forum.”
