Camp Director

Lynchburg native and former Penn State University assistant Hilliary Scott has completed his first season as the new Head Men's Basketball Coach at Lynchburg College. Scott brings incredible knowledge and enthusiasm to his basketball camps. As a young basketball player, you will have the opportunity to learn the fundamentals of basketball with an emphasis on individual teaching and skill development. Scott has been an assistant coach at Penn State University for the last five seasons, helping the Division I Nittany Lion program to double-digit win totals in each of the last three campaigns. He also worked for five seasons as an assistant coach at East Tennessee State (1998-99 season through 2002-03). The Buccaneers won three-straight Southern Conference North Division Titles and an NCAA Tournament berth in 2002-03. Coach Scott's impressive resume has carried over from an equally impressive playing career. Scott attended local E.C. Glass High School and played his collegiate basketball at nearby Roanoke College. As a Maroon, he was a two-time National Association of Basketball Coaches All-American in 1993 and 1994 and was named the Old Dominion Athletic Conference (ODAC) Player of the Year in his senior season. Before entering the coaching ranks, Scott played professional basketball in Europe for the Killester Basketball Club (Dublin, Ireland), from 1994-96 and the Chester Jets (England) from 1996-97.

Camp Sessions:

Father Son Camp

Boys ages 6-17 and Fathers/Guardians

This camp will provide a unique bonding experience between father and son. The fathers will take an active role in the teaching process and participate in drills, stations, and games. The participants will enjoy their time on and off the court and in the dorms. Both fathers and sons will enjoy the interaction with each other and the Hornet basketball coaching staff. This camp makes a great Father's Day gift! Meals will be provided starting with Dinner on Friday.
