International Student Certification Of Finances And Letter Of Support

The information requested below will be used to verify that adequate funding is available and designated for international students wanting to study at the University of Lynchburg. Strict government regulations, rising educational costs, and economic conditions have made verification of financial resources of international applicants essential. Institutions do not have the option of deciding whether or not to verify the financial resources of their international applicants; financial verification must be made prior to the issuance of a Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20) which is required in order to apply for an F-1 non-immigrant student visa. Please complete and return this form by printing your information legibly.

A Certificate of Eligibility (I-20) will not be issued until this form is completed and completed in its entirety. In addition to this form, you must also submit a Banker's Letter from your financial sponsor's bank. The banker's letter must be less than 90 days old and, on the Bank's, official stationery. It must also be written in English with the funding amount shown in U.S. Dollars. A copy of this form should be attached to your I-20 and taken to the U.S. Consulate for your visa appointment.

Estimate of Expenses for Academic Year 2025-2026 for International Undergraduate Students

*Enrollment Deposit = $300
Tuition = $37,850
Room and Board = $14,110
International Student Orientation Fee = $250
Emergency funds = $2,000
Medical insurance = $900
Other Expenses = $4,500

Estimated Total funded needed for Form I-20 = $59,910

(Note: your funding amount needed is this total amount minus any scholarship the University has awarded to you; refer to your admission letter for scholarship amount)

*Enrollment deposit is refundable only if student's visa is denied

Other expenses include but are not limited to extra course fees and supplies, incidentals, textbooks, living expenses such as toiletries and personal items, travel within the U.S., medications, etc.

NOTE: Remaining on-campus in your residence space during winter and summer break is not included in the cost estimate above. There is an additional charge for staying in campus housing for winter and summer break of $70 per week plus the cost of groceries and incidentals as the meal plan is not active during these times.
