HOW it Happened

The Daura Gallery at Lynchburg College was established in 1974 as the College's art gallery. It was dedicated in 1990 as the Daura Gallery in memory of Pierre and Louise Blair Daura. In 1995, the Gallery expanded its facilities through the generosity of their daughter, Martha Randolph Daura, who also donated more than 200 works by the Catalan-American artist Pierre Daura (1896-1976) to the Gallery. The collection now numbers more than 2,000 paintings, works on paper, sculpture, and ethnographic objects from America, Europe, and world cultures.
