FEATURED WESTOVER: MATTHEW VARSI

Matthew Varsi is a Freshman Economy major with an emphasis in finance and a double minor in accounting and statistics. Matthew came to Lynchburg from Greensboro, North Carolina, but previously lived in New York. He returns over the summer to visit family. As a part of the Bonner program, he is very active in service and works with special needs adults as well as at a local community garden. Outside of school and service, he likes cars and even used to do MMA fighting. After his undergraduate, Matthew plans to attend Grad school to get a PhD.

Matthew says that so far, he has really enjoyed his Westover Humanities Classes.

A NIGHT AT THE MOVIES CONCERT

At 7:30 on Thursday, February 21 and Friday, February 22, the University of Lynchburg Wind Symphony, Orchestra and Community Big Band came together to put on A Night At The Movies Concert. What was unique about this show is that the pieces all had a familiar theme- The Wonderful World of Walt Disney. Songs such as "You've Got a Friend in Me" from Toy Story and "Circle of Life" from The Lion King filled Sydnor Performance Hall as the lights dimmed to reveal the glowing Disney castle and video playing on the big screen.

There are many Westover's that participate in the University of Lynchburg choir and wind symphony. Addy Weaver, Brianna Yancey, Cassandra Robertson, Kaitlyn Langford, Matt Gillett, and Jenna Bohrer all sang in this special show. In the Wind Symphony, Colin Coviello, Christian Kumar, Mark Stephens, and Katelyn Blue play the Violin. Geoffrey Murphy and Brianna Heath play the flute, Dr. Kicklighter plays the cello and Malik Nowlin plays the Alto Saxophone. Hannah Chapman, Hannah Belyachi and Shannon McGovern are on percussion. As Westover students, balancing classwork and passions can be a demanding task. These students did so beautifully this past week as they demonstrated their skills and talents, and made the Society of Westover Fellows proud.
